

Clifty Falls State Park

March, 2007

Darrell Skinner, Property Manager; Kevin Snyder, Asst. Property Manager
Karen Hinton, Clifty Inn Manager; Richard Davis, Interpretive Naturalist
Nature Center open: Wed. - Sun. 12pm - 4pm or as posted ~ 812/273-0609

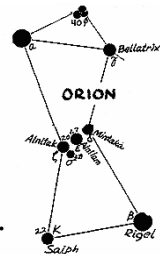

Bring family and friends to experience late winter/early spring at Clifty Falls State Park. These activities offer a window to a unique view on the Indiana landscape and the American outdoors. Dress for the weather and come join our outdoor adventures at Clifty Falls!

Saturday, March 3

7pm Timberdoodle Flights of Fancy! - See if any male woodcock ... the "timberdoodle"... are wooing female woodcock in an age-old sight and sound spectacular... the sunset courtship flight. Takes place at the pool parking lot.

Saturday, March 10

8pm Ode To Orion! - Late winter... early spring... perfect time for a look at the star studded skies.... meet Orion the hunter, Leo the Lion, and the Pleiades sisters! Might even be a bonus in a coyote call! Bring flashlights! Forty-five minutes, meets at the swimming pool parking lot.

Saturday, March 17

10am Signs of Spring Hike! - Chase early green on the forest floor, hear the woodpecker's territorial drum beat, round up the frog chorus... all in this ninety minute journey. Come prepared for wet upland hiking! Meets at the nature center.

Saturday, March 24

1-4pm Fossils Rock! Workshop! - Program includes indoor fossil identification primer followed by carpooling to collection site outside the park. There is a $2 per person program fee. Please pre-register by calling the Nature Center at (812) 273-0609. Meets at the park Nature Center.

Saturday, March 31

2pm Tunnel Tour - Tunnel ruins of John Brough's 1850's railroad project reveal local geology, underground critters and a fascinating human drama! It's just plain hydraulic, muddy and dark! There's a low overhead and it's bedrock solid. Parents, kids... bring your flashlights. Meets at Oak Grove trail 5 parking... sixty minutes!